

Governor's Daily News Summary

January 10, 2001

<http://www.clarionledger.com/>

House OKs vote on flag
Officials request extra \$6M emergency funds
All ballots to bear flag illustrations
Lawmakers face host of education legislation
Remedial university classes under fire
Lawmakers face task of redrawing districts
Ex-teacher pleads guilty to fraud
Some predict trouble with state tests
Alpha T gets mixed reviews
Editorials

<http://www.sunherald.com/>

Hanging chads could stall hanging of a new state flag
State labor agency proposal hailed, decried

<http://www.djournal.com>

Flag passes House: vote set for April 17
Proposal on election lines draws fire
CHARLIE MITCHELL: Musgrove speech lacked some big elements

<http://www.gomemphis.com>

House swift to OK vote on whether to redesign state flag

<http://www.desototimes.com>

Local law enforcement and the Mississippi Highway Patrol are trying to get a handle on a fast-growing traffic problem in Mississippi's fastest-growing county

<http://www.meridianstar.com>

Burton named to key redistricting panel
Burns: Meridian 'key' in state development plans

<http://www.enterprise-journal.com/>

Tim Kalich: Gov. should speak out on flag

<http://www.accessatlanta.com>

Mississippi House OKs vote on flag

<http://www.nytimes.com/>

Mississippi House Wants Voters to Decide Fate of Confederate Emblem on State Flag